

Varangian voyagers – actors, groups and networks between the Baltic and the Black Sea, Roskilde d. 21.2.09

10.00-10.45 Vikings on the East of Europe: in Search of Glory or a New Motherland

Volodymyr Kovalenko, Ukrainian Academy of Science, Kiev

10.45-11.00 Discussion

11.00-11.45 Chasing gold threads: Auratae vestes from Hellenistic rulers to Varangian guards

Margarita Gleba, The Danish Research Foundations Centre for Textile Research

11.45-12.00 Discussion

12.00-13.30 Lunch

13.30-14.15 Groups and Networks in the Russo-Byzantine Treaties of the Tenth Century

John Lind, Centre for Medieval Studies, University of Southern Denmark

14.15-14.30 Discussion

14.30-15.15 Shipwrecks of Constantinople's Theodosian Harbor/Portus Theodosiacus

(7th-11th centuries A.D.)

Cemal Pulak, Institute of Nautical Archaeology, Texas A&M University

15.15-15.30 Discussion

15.30-16.00 Coffee/Tea

16.00-16.45 preliminary title: Royal connections

Karsten Fledelius, The Department of Media, Cognition and Communication, University of Copenhagen

16.45-17.00 Discussion

17.00-17.45 Harbour sites, trade centers and the research of maritime landscapes in Baltic States

Marika Mägi, Institute of History of Tallinn University Department of Archaeology, University of Tallinn, Estonia

17.45-18.00 Discussion

18.00-18.30 The ship-grave from Ladby: A man of the world in the Viking Age

Anne Sørensen, The Vikingship Museum, Roskilde

18.30-18.45 Discussion

19.00 Dinner

The seminar will take place in the large auditorium in the Activity House on the Museum island = no.. 4 on the map (summercafé). Vindeboder 12, 400 Roskilde. See attachment.

The network will host lunch and dinner (free for members of the network). Please register for lunch and dinner by Monday 16.2.09 by Line Bjerg at klalb@hum.au.dk