

The Danish National Research Foundation's Centre for Black Sea Studies
Jens Chr. Skousvej, building 1451, 3rd floor.
Faculty of Arts – University of Aarhus – Denmark
Tel: + 45 8942 5404 – Fax: + 45 8942 5410 – web: www.pontos.dk

Multicultural Encounters in Crimea and Beyond

January 12, 2009,
Aarhus

Preliminary program

10-00 – 11-00

Søren Handberg. Ethnos in the archaeological record - Between cultural-history and postcolonialism.

11-00 – 12-00

Igor Khrapunov. Ethnic History of Crimea in the 4th-2nd cent. B.C.

12-00 - 13-00 Lunch break

13-00 – 14-00

Vladimir Stolba. Multi-cultural encounters in Western Crimea: burial rites and handmade pottery.

14-00 – 15-00

Tatiana Smekalova. Kurgans of Western, Eastern Crimea and Crimean foothills.

15-00 – 15-30 Coffee break

15-30 – 16-30

Pia Guldager Bilde and Kristina Winther Jacobsen. The settlement pattern of the Džarylgač Lake area: can we determine who lived where and why?

The seminar takes place at the Black Sea Centre, Nobelparken Building 1451, 3rd floor, room 318.

Please notify Leif Erik Vaag on your participation at klalev@hum.au.dk or phone 8942 5404 before Friday 9th of January.
